

One night there was a
great night in the Kingdom of Paris.
That's because a
princess was born.

They celebrated with a baby shower. The Queen said, "We all
think that this is
going to be a brave,
strong, and beautiful
princess". One afternoon the baby was playing
with toys the

villagers had given
her. A wicked witch
walked by looking
for some one to try
her magic potions on.

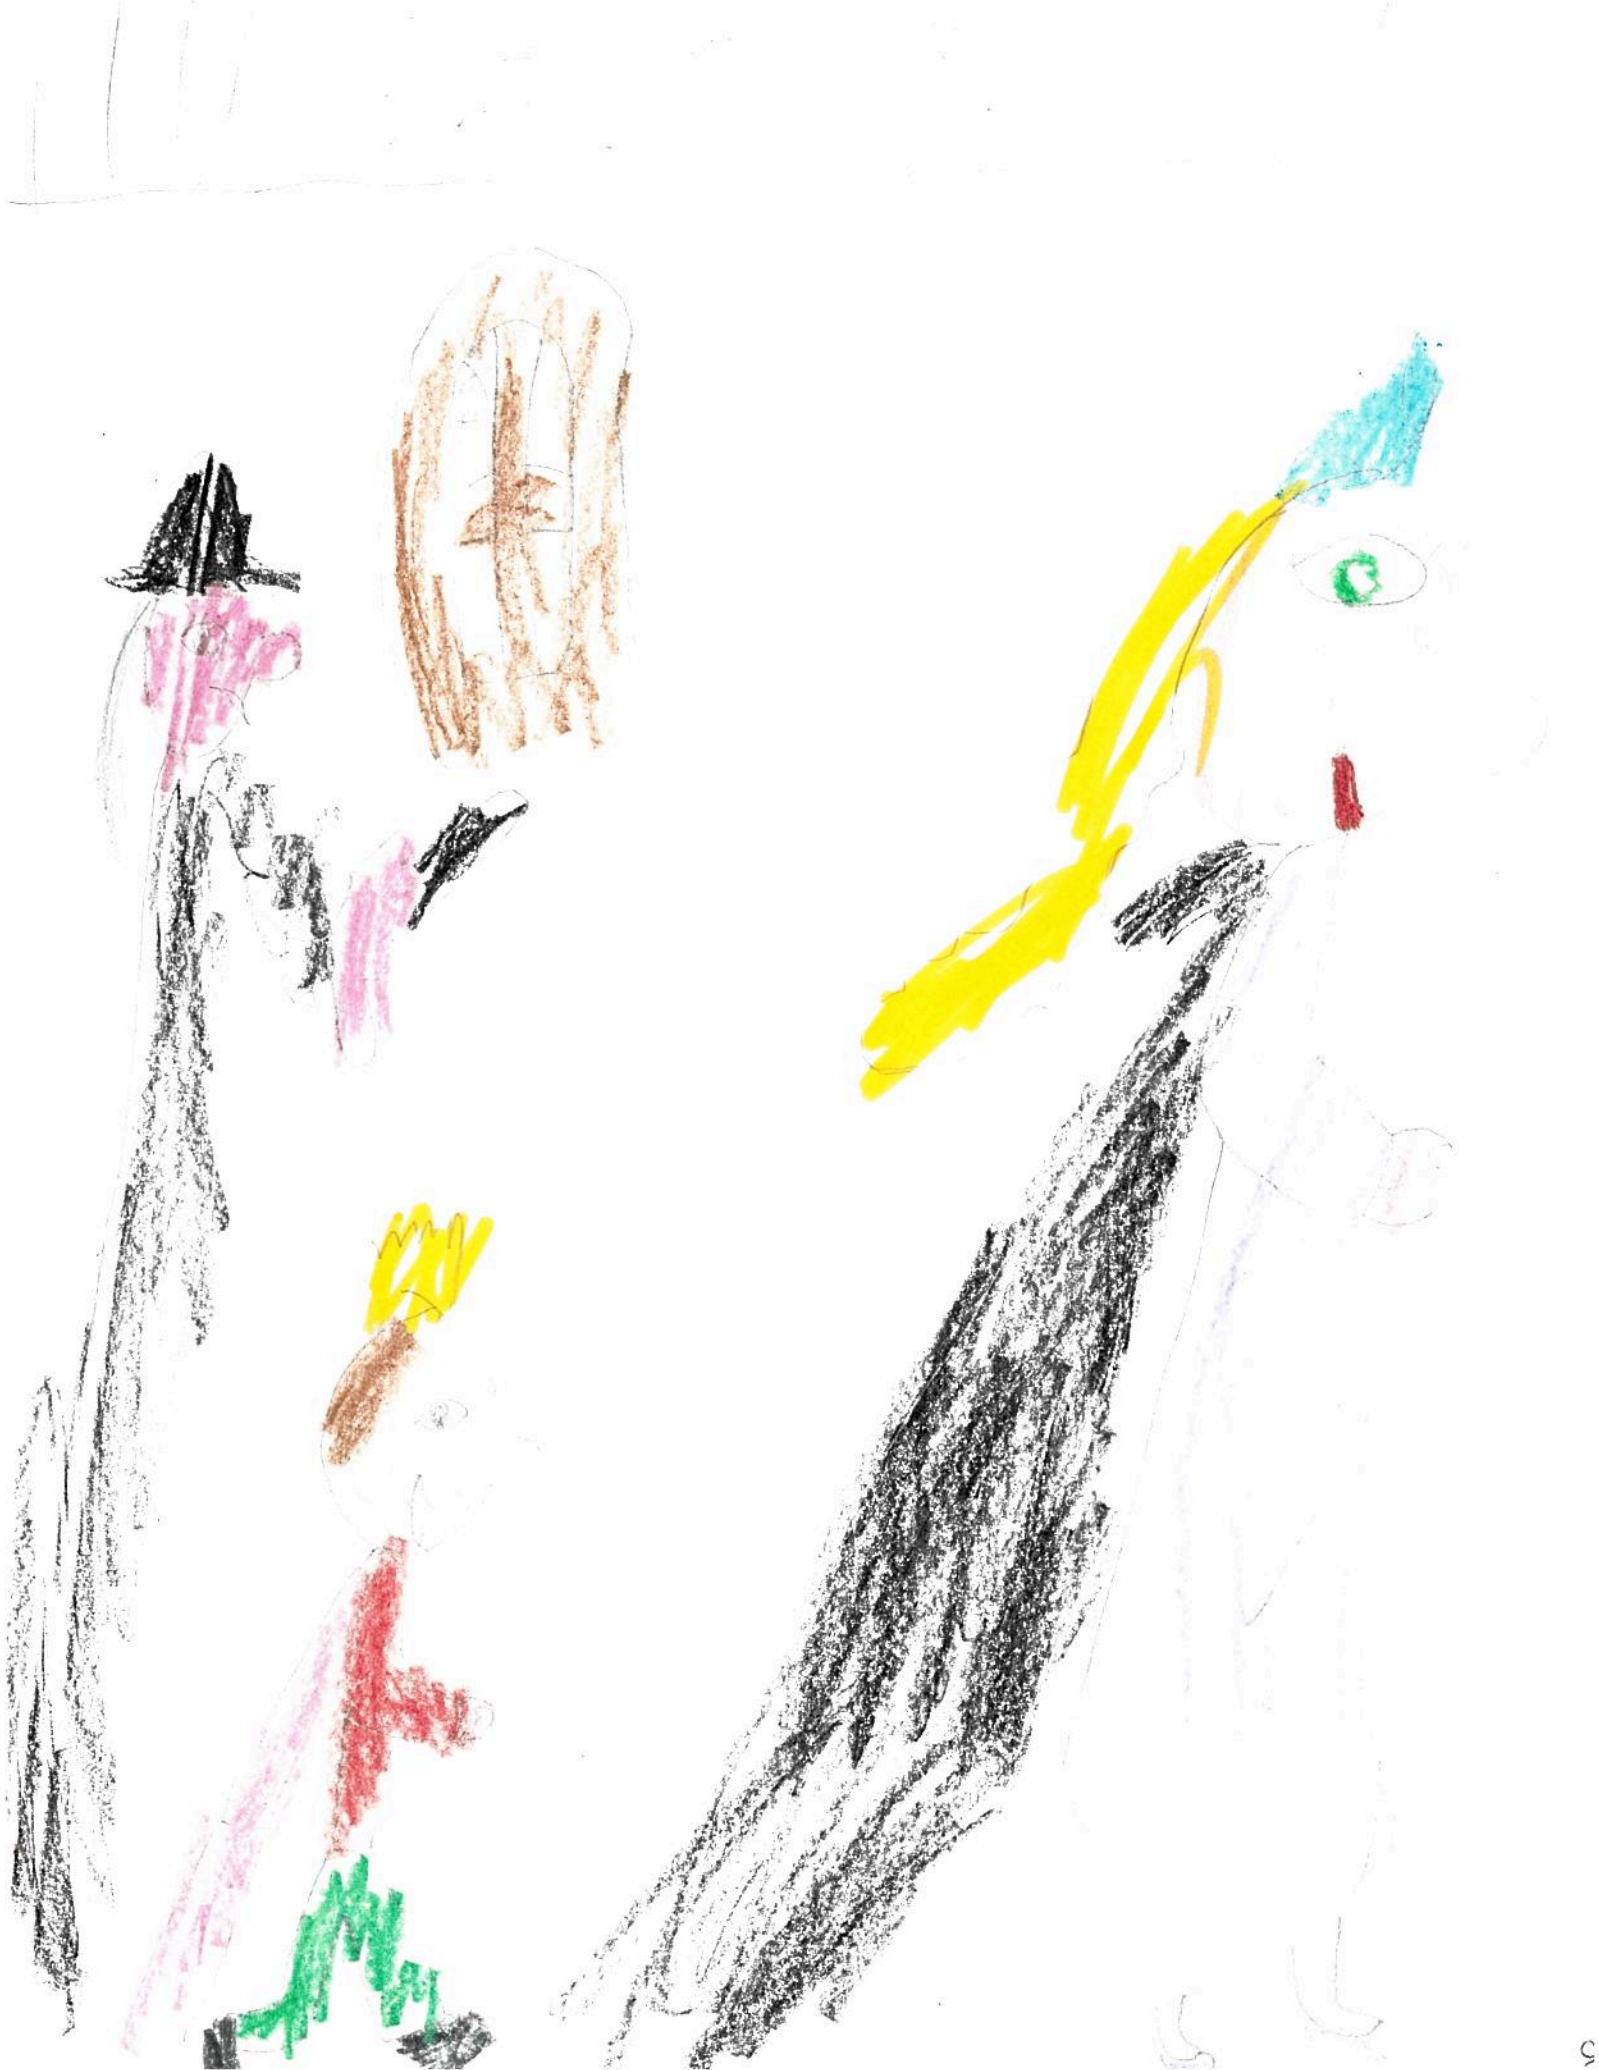

The witch saw the
princess and thought
she would be perfect,
but she needed to be
older. When the princess was five the witch
took her to a tower
and locked her up.
After some years the

Queen had another
baby, a boy named
Max. Max discovered
he could talk to animals. The animals
told him about a
mean, wicked, and
not charming person
named Asi. She was

the witch keeping
his sister. The animals lead the way for Max, they had to push the
right buttons to open the door.

Max crept in,
the witch came

and he hid on the ceiling in the spider-
webs. He found his sister locked up
and uncomfortable.
He pushed the right
buttons and his
sister got free.
The witch chased

them; - but - Max - and his - sister - climbed -

the - ceiling - webs. - - -

They - rode - home - on -

on - the - back - of - a - deer. The King - and queen - locked - up -

the - witch - and - let -

the - kind - animals - - -

live in the tower.

The kingdom was

safe. This book is about courage.

The Princess and

The Wicked Witch.

to y

----- Madeline -----

