Anita and Robert L. Wagner | WCNY members and volunteers

“ For lifelong education and entertainment, Bob and I very much depend on WCNY. Classic FM kept me company for years during my long commute to work. When I retired, I wanted to give back to WCNY through volunteering. I’ve been a Read-Out reader for several years, and that led to more opportunities, such as writing auction scripts and being an auction phone bank operator. The WCNY staff always make me feel like a valued part of the operations, especially as a proofer for this magazine!”

“ I appreciate the balanced, in depth coverage provided by the PBS NewsHour. And, I feast on anything from the Masterpiece Mystery series. I also think it is important to support Public Broadcasting in all its aspects.”
