

MEET OUR TASTE OF FAME CHEF

TIFFANY DERRY

Tiffany Derry is the founder of Tiffany Derry Concepts and co-founder of T2D Concepts, the Texas-based purpose-driven hospitality group behind Roots Chicken Shak, Roots Southern Table, Radici, and 'Shef Tiffany spice and apparel line. Tiffany stepped into the spotlight when she appeared on Bravo's "Top Chef" Season 7, earning the title of "fan favorite" and finishing in the top four. Derry has also appeared on "Top Chef: All-Stars," where she was again a finalist, and was a series host on Spike TV's "Hungry Investors" and "Bar Rescue" alongside Jon Taffer. In addition to "The Great American Recipe," you can find Tiffany on "Bobby's Triple Threat" and "Worst Cooks in America" on Food Network.

Tiffany's authentic approach to Southern cooking landed her on the 2022 James Beard Award finalist list in two categories: Best Chef, Texas, and Best New Restaurant for Roots Southern Table. Outside of her restaurants, Tiffany is a fierce advocate for social justice and equity across gender, race, and food access. She serves as a member of Les Dames d'Escoffier and is a spokesperson for the James Beard Foundation's sustainability efforts. Additionally, she is an ambassador for the diabetes organization Novo Nordisk and sits on the Board of Directors for Food Policy Action.
